

Rioja Santiago Reserva 2018

Product Images

Description

This velvet-smooth Reserva has a rich, fruity texture and a generous lick of vanilla from spending three years' ageing including one year in American oak barrels.

Additional Information

SKU	913528
Description	This velvet-smooth Reserva has a rich, fruity texture and a generous lick of vanilla from spending three years' ageing including one year in American oak barrels.
Short tasting note	Generous, Velvety, Fruity
Country of Origin	Spain & Islands
Region	Rioja
Winery	Marques de la Concordia
Grape Variety	Tempranillo
About Producer	Producing wine since 1870, Marques de la Concordia's grapes come from the oldest and highest quality vineyards in Rioja Alta, with their wines aged in French oak. Rioja Alta extends through the territories between Haro and Logroño, south of the river, Ebro. It is a humid and mountainous zone due to its higher elevation above sea level, with a totally Atlantic climate. Most of its soils are of alluvial earth, and limestone-clay-ferrous.
Food matching	Roast lamb
Vintage	2018
ABV	13.5%
Allergens	Sulphites
Closure	Cork
Size	75cl
Pack Size	6

