

Bodegas Principe de Viana Edicion Limitada Magnum 2010

Product Images

Description

From highly selective plots of 25 Percent Tempranillo 50 Percent Merlot and 25 Percent Cabernet Sauvignon the blend is aged for 14 months in French and American oak barrels. Ample round and well structured on the palate elegant notes of red fruit mixed with wood mild toast and vanilla.

Additional Information

SKU	913192
Description	From highly selective plots of 25 Percent Tempranillo 50 Percent Merlot and 25 Percent Cabernet Sauvignon the blend is aged for 14 months in French and American oak barrels. Ample round and well structured on the palate elegant notes of red fruit mixed with wood mild toast and vanilla.
Short tasting note	Aromas of red and black fruits, cherries, plums, wild strawberries and blueberries.
Country of Origin	Spain & Islands
Region	Navarra
Winery	Bodegas Principe de Viana
Grape Variety	Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Tempranillo
About Supplier	The Principe de Viana group was founded in 1983 as a joint venture between the Navarra government and local private investors in order to put the Murchante co-operative on a commercial footing. One of the most progressive wineries in what was then a slumbering Spain, they hired the services of 'Flying Winemakers' such as Nick Butler to produce modern, fruit-driven wines that appealed to a younger, more fashionable international market.
Dietary & Lifestyle	Suitable for vegetarians, Suitable for vegans
Food matching	Game and sausages
Vintage	2010
ABV	13.5%
Allergens	Sulphites
Closure	Cork
Size	1.5ltr
Pack Size	1

