About Supplier	Mont Rochelle is nestled at the end of the Franschhoek valley in South Africa, around 400m above sea level. The valley allows cooling breezes over the vines thus allowing Mont Rochelle to produce cultivars less suited to much of South Africa due to heat. The range of wines at Mont Rochelle covers a multitude of tastes, with only limited quantities of high quality wines being produced, but all offering fantastic value for money. Mont Rochelle is Richard Branson's South African hotel and vineyard.
