

Maison Chanzy Santenay Rouge 2016

Product Images

Description

Supple and intense attack, and its aromatic register with its distinguished finish mean it should be matched with slow cooked dishes like braised veal or beef, to which its tannins will lend structure without being aggressive.

Additional Information

SKU	906175
Description	Supple and intense attack, and its aromatic register with its distinguished finish mean it should be matched with slow cooked dishes like braised veal or beef, to which its tannins will lend structure without being aggressive.
Brands	Maison Chanzy
Short tasting note	Savoury, Elegant, Fine
Country of Origin	France
Region	Burgundy
Winery	Maison Chanzy
Grape Variety	Pinot Noir
About Producer	Chanzy own 80 hectares spread over the three Burgundy Côtes, with a majority of their vines in the Côte Chalonnaise and a historical presence in Bouzeron, where the wines are made from the lesser known grape Aligote.
Food matching	Braised beef
Vintage	2016
ABV	13%
Allergens	Sulphites
Closure	Cork
Size	75cl
Pack Size	12
Sub Region	Côte de Beaune

